OHIO'S PENITENTARY.

Indications Favorable for Ils Removal to Mausfield.

COLUMNUS, O., Nov. 23. -The sub-committee, consisting of Senator Kerr, of Richland; Representatives Kitchen, of Viuton, and McCray, of Ashland, of the joint legislative committee appointed last winter to consider the advisability of removing the Ohio penitentlary to Mausfield, have struck a rich find that, when known, will startle the people of the state. HARRISON'S ADVISERS

Several Names Mentioned for Positions in the Next Cablnet.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.-There is much talk about Mr. Clarkson, of Iowa, going into the cabinet. He is looked upon as at the head of political alfairs in Iowa now. It Mr. Ailison should go into the treasury department, that would, of course, leave Mr. Clarkson out of the contest. There would then be an opening much more to his liking, the seat vacated in the senate by Mr. Allison. The honor would be between him and ex-Representative Hepharn. When in the house Mr. Hepturn was regarded as one of the strongest men on the Republican side.

Some doubt is being, expressed now about Gen. Algers being made secretary of war. The assumption has been upon the nation that some sort of agreement was entered into at Chicago, but it does not appear that Mr. Harrison made any pledges there.

The friends of W. W. Murray, of Tennessee, believe that he is likely to get a call into Mr. Harrison's cabinet. They say that if was refused by Stilson Hutchins. The any southern man is selected for this distinction, Mr. Murray is apt to be chosen for antorney general. He is probably the most prominent Republican of that state and also turned from Chevy Chase, Wednesday member of the Republican National cominittee.

THE RECORD FOR TEN MONTHS WORK IN TENNESSEE.

Over Fifteen Hundred Converts From the Vicinity of Chatinnonga Have Been loduced to Emigrate to Utah Within That Time-the Poor Mountainers Easily

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 33 -- For three vears the Mormon elders have been working Tennessee, northern Alabama and western Virginia for the purpose of proselyting the people to the Mormon faith. Two years ugo in middle Tennesse two of these elders were killed outright and to this day their prir derershave never been prosecuted.

Although there is n law in Tennessee probibiting Marmon elders from openly advocating the Mormon doctrines, yet they have increased their force so that they make It a business to visit families in person, and persuads them to accept the Morman faith. In Chattanooga there are now two elders permanently located, who have charge of a large field.

The preliminary , work at this point was done by E.der Morgau, one of the hrightest debaters in the Mormon church, who made his headquarters in this city for over a yenr. Having planted the seed, he then sent Elders Perry and Stokey to this point and have since had charge of the field. They have established a regular preaching point near St. Eimo, one of the suburbs of the city, and have quite a large congregation.

Tuesday 500 converts assembled in this city from all parts of the central south, the larger portion of them coming from the mountains of east Tennessee and Virginia, and were taken to Utah by Elder Perry. The prolific field for most of the Morinoi eiders is in the mountainous districts.

The native mountaineer is usually poor and when he hears of the great possibilities for an easy and happy life in Utah, it does not take-long to convert him to the Mormon faith. The women especially are easily per suaded. When once convinced that Mor monism is right, they cannot be turned aside from their purpose to seek a home in the far

The stream is very high, and the carrent always extremely violent, was running about twenty miles an hour. Waters plunged into the, river after his bride, and succeeded in reaching her. Grasping her in his arms, he attempted to reach the shore, but he could make 'no headway against the violent current, and was borne rapidly away.

The heads of the half drowned people were seen occusionally as they bobbed above the waves, listf a mile below the bridge at Silas ferry, the boat was in mid-stream as Waters and his vife came along, and they were rescued after one of the ferrymen had nearly lust his life.

Waters was dead when taken from the water, and his wife apparently so, but she was revived after unremitting exertions, ex tending over half an hour.

THE Owen County Democrat has suspended. Its owner and editor was lately appointed State Librarian, which may account for the suspension.

Ex-Congressman Phil. Thompson, of this State seems to be making a success tempt to keep our local "monopoly" in at the practice of law in New York. He has just recovered a judgement against the Nickerbocker Ice Company for a fee this year for lighting her streets. An of $10,000, the amount claimed, and an electric light company offered to do the allowance of 21 per cent. extra as trim- lighting for $1,200 per year less than the mings.

of Representatives is passing strange. Most countles are sorry that they have one, inslead of hankering after two. Take Louisville, for inslance. Who would want her Representatives?-Lexington Press.

The more the merrier, and with two such positions to be filled it won't take so long for the honors to go 'round among the crop of aspirants. Don't you see? And "two heads are better than one." But seriously Maysville is not going to trouble herself much over the matter.

THE Maysville Republican didn't say a word in its last issue about the Hall Safe and Lock Company, of Cincinnati, discharging a number of their hands. But it did say a good deal about a slight increase of wages granted the employes principally in some Pennsylvania iron industries, and, of course, attributed the increase to Harrison's election.

The men who were discharged by the lock company referred to were fired out because they objected to a reduction of wages. The wages of the wood-workers. were cut 15 per cent, and of the filters 30 per cent. The men claim that many of them acted upon the advice of the firm and voted for Harrison and Morton that wages might be maintained. But here in William Bood, Mrs. Sibbald's mother. less than a month after the election the hypocrisy of the employers is exposed by a reduction of wages of nearly one-third is some branches of their establishment.

If the increase noted by our contemporary was due to Harrison's election, to what must this reduction be attributed? Will the Republican please answer?

Kentucky's Vote.

In 1884, Cleveland polled about 153,000 votes in this State. At the recent election his vote amounted to about 183,-000--en increase in four years of about

Blaine's vote four years ago in Kentucky was a little more than 118,000. This year Harrison polled a little less than 155,000-an Increase of about 37,-

The vote of the two parties is the largest ever cast in the State. The Demorratic increase would undoubtedly have been much larger had there been a warm fight for Congressman in all the districts. In the First and Second,-strongholds of the party-the Democratic vote shows but little increase. Their nominees were certain of election, and there was probably no special effort to get out a full vote.

The Republicans make their heaviest gains in the mountain counties of the Tenth district—a district where there are more pauper counties perhaps than in any other section in the State.

Had there been a determined fight all around at the late election the Democratic vote would no doubt have reached 200,-

Railroad Notes.

The Louisville Southern announces that construction will continue on its ines all winter.

Monday, December 3rd, is about the date the M. & B. S. will be turned over to the company and opened for traffic all along the route.

We understand that a special train containing the conductors and engineers for the new road, will leave Cincinnati for Huntington Sunday, over the Maysville and Big Saudy Railroad, for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the new route.-Dover News.

The Louisville and Nashville road proposes to beat the record of the worldfamed British train, the "Flying Norwester," which goes the run from London to Edinburg (400 miles) in seven hours and ten minutes. The "Flying Razor Back" of the L. & N. is their fast and after he had somewhat recovered he Gulf and Atlantic express, and will run started outside and pitched headlong from Pensacola to Chipley, the West actual running time sixty miles an hour. -Exchange.

The Ashland Republican says: "We have been informed that when the new schedule goes into effect on the C. & O. system, the train that runs from Huntington to Olive Hill will be put on the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad, to run from Huntington to Cincinnati, and that all trains of this road will extend their trips to Huntington Instead of laying over in this city. The new schedule is expected to go into effect on the 2nd

The Republican also states that "the Chesapeake and Ohio Valley road will run vestibule coaches between Huntington, W. Va., and Covington, Ky., when the M. & B. S. is completed to the latter named place."

The Traslaurthy Character of the Guardians of the Frauco-German Frontler Have Saved the Two Countries From Serious II. Berences-Other Foreign News

LONDON, Nov. 23 .- It is now fulrly settled in the opinion of Scotland Yard that the man who attempted to cut the throat of a woman in the Whitechapel district was not the murderous Hend who has baffied the police so long. It turns out to have been a drunken quarrel between the woman and man, who have associated together for a year. The wonder is that the fellow escaped in browl daylight in a locality suppoved to be elliciently patrolled and guarded by both police and law and order

A London sensation is another letter from "Jack, the Ruper," addressed from Ports mouth. It is in the same handwriting as its predecessors, und reads as follows:

DEAR linss; -It is no use for you to look for me in Loadon because I am not there, Don't trouble yourself about me until 1 return, which will not be very long. I like the work too well to leave it long. Oh, it was such a july jub, the last one. I had plenty of time to do it properly. Ha, ha! The next lot I mean to do with a vengenice, and cut off their hands and arms. You think it is a man with a black ninstache. Ha, ha, hal When I have done another you can catch me. So good-by, dear boss, till 1 return. Yours. JACK, THE RIPPER."

Of course there is no assurance that the man who writes these letters is the real flend and not a grun jaker. Opinion is very much divided upon that question.

Alsace-Lorraine.

LONDON, Nov. 23 -- If the Freuch and German guardians of their respective frontiers were not especially trustworthy men the twe conutries would have been involved in the most serious differences long since. French youth of a sporting turn guin cheap notoriety and the admiration of their comrades by posching across the border and bringing back a few birds or hares at the risk of being putted themselves by the warders of the annexed territory. When a conscription takes place the lot of the unlucky young men, who naturally are doubly resentful at having, possibly at no distant day, to serve against those to whom they are bound by all natural ties, is bewunted by their friends and relatives whose grief resalts in violent scenes sometimes, and more serious riots have been often averred only by the fact that the German officers have wisely used a force organist which it would have been folly to contend,

The conquerors profess to be satisfied with their progress in Germanizing the new proviluces and of course the French proclaim that they are more loyal to their ald alliliations than ever. Travelers who have encountered the restrictions to which the Tentons have subjected these who desire to pass turough Alsace and Lorraiue, feel no particular love the last few years, and that all the trade is falling into their hands gradually. This may be more apparent that real, however, owing to the regulations compelling lunsiness signs, etc., to be in the German language,

One thing is certain; the number of young men who have failed to answer the summons requiring them to report at German headquarters is annually increasing again, much to the anger of the military numerities. The most energetic and enterprising are unmurally John Norman, En Sowders, James H. Rags the ones who withdraw from the glorious dale, Israe Spies, Jr., and William Stackopportunity to qualify themselves for the shambles of their conquerers, and it is a question whether those whom circumstances compel to remain will be an element of strength or weakness in the service which they have been forced to embrace.

During the last decade the emigrants from Alsace-Lorraine have outnumbered the German settlers by about ten thousand, but these latter, it is claimed, are by far more prolific, the birth rate of the provinces having increased to a noticeable extent during the last lifteen years. It is granted that illiteracy has decreased, the German laws regarding the education of children in the maanfacturing districts being very strict.

BERLIN, Nov. 23,-It is reported that 200 Alsatian recrnits from Column, Thann and Mulhouse attacked their military escort and wounded a Prassian soldier. The mutheers are sald to have taken refuge in Switzerland. Wholesale arrests of other recruits are said to have been made. It is also stated that four Prussian officers were assaulted and seriously lujured by French sympathizers at Birasburg.

Bridal Veil and Plowers.

The bridat voil is of eastern origin, and among the Anglo-Saxons it was hald over the heads of both bride and groom. The orauge blossom is the emblem of purity and truth, although in some portions of France the bride is crowned with a myrtle wreath, which is transferred to ber hand when she is blindfolded, and the bridemaids dauce about her while she seeks to place the wreath ou one of their heads. The one so crowned, It is said, will horself be a bride within the following year. An Id superstition prevalls to the effect that all plus used in fastening the bridal veil and flowers must be thrown away or ill fortune will come to the bride. How many must have neglected to do this.-Chicago Herald.

The Pusinge on Newsmaners.

Some people are under the impression that newspapers, un matter what their weight is, go for one cent each. This is not correct. The rate on newspapers and other publications regularly entered as second class matter, when intuited as transient, is one cent for every four ounces or fraction thereof. Others will wrap the paper so tightly that it will not slide out. Some fasten the wrapper to the paper with muchlinge so it can not slide out, All malter except first class must 10 prepared to admit of easy and thorough examination.-Stamp Clerk lu Globe-Democrat.

Utilizing the African Elephant.

In Petermann's Mitteilungen Herr J. Mouges raises once more the question of the possibility of utilizing the African elephant. Herr Menges points out that there is strong evidence that the elephant was used in ancient times in Africa, and asserts that no serious attempt has been made in modern times to subdue It to the uses of humanity. He maintains that it is quite as docile as the Imhan elephant and much stronger, and that if It could be really tamed and trained to work it would be of immeuse utllity in the opeulag of Africa, -- Boston Transcript.
